

112 Posters Guidelines

As all your customers should be aware about the European emergency number 112, you should make sure that 112 posters are hung up where they will be the most visible for your customers:

- on the desk of the reception office / on the wall behind the reception desk
- within special information on safety and security of the hotel/hostel
- on doors, inside bedrooms
- on doors of stairs / inside the lift
- on doors of kitchens and bathrooms
